

Erdős Problem #470

EP-470

L1 - TRACTABLE

OPEN

Number Theory

ORIGINAL PROBLEM STATEMENT

Call n weird if $\sigma(n) \geq 2n$ and n is not pseudoperfect, that is, it is not the sum of any set of its divisors. Are there any odd weird numbers? Are there infinitely many primitive weird numbers, i.e. those such that no proper divisor of n is weird?