

Minimal graphs with a prescribed number of spanning trees

OPG-37420

L1 - TRACTABLE

PARTIALLY SOLVED

Graph Theory

ORIGINAL PROBLEM STATEMENT

Conjecture Let $n \geq 3$ be an integer and let $\alpha(n)$ denote the least integer k such that there exists a simple graph on k vertices having precisely n spanning trees. Then $\alpha(n) = o(\log n)$.